25           a protective order restraining the above-identified property (hereafter, the “Subject
26           Property”) is appropriate because:
27

- 1 • The United States gave notice in the Superseding Indictment of its intent to 2 pursue forfeiture of any proceeds of, and property that facilitated the 3 Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Substances (Dkt. No. 40);
- 4 • The United States also gave notice of its intent to pursue forfeiture of specific 5 property in the Forfeiture Bill of Particulars, which specifically identifies the
6 Subject Property, other than the items designated Subject Property (xxxvi) –
7 (lvi) (Dkt. No. 269);
- 8 • The Court found probable cause to believe the Subject Property, other than the 9 items designated Subject Property (xxxvi) – (lvi), is subject to forfeiture in this 10 case and that its current restraint, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(e)(1), is 11 appropriate (Dkt. No. 278);
- 12 • In a Second Forfeiture Bill of Particulars (Dkt. No. 319), the United States
13 gave notice of its intent to pursue forfeiture of additional property also seized
14 from the safes in the Minterbrook Residence, but inadvertently omitted from 15 the list of property identified in the Forfeiture Bill of Particulars (Dkt. No. 269)
16 and the Motion for Protective Order (Dkt. No. 270);
- 17 • In this Amended Motion, the United States seeks an Amended Protective Order
18 that includes the additional property identified in the Second Forfeiture Bill of 19 Particulars and designated herein as Subject Property 1 (xxxvi) – (lvi);
- 20 • Based on the facts set forth in SA Meyer’s Declaration, there is probable cause
21 to believe that all of the Subject Property, including that property designated
22 herein as Subject Property 1 (xxxvi) – (lvi), is subject to forfeiture in this case;
23 and
- 24 • To ensure that all of the Subject Property remains available for forfeiture, its 25 continued restraint, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(e)(1), is appropriate.
26
27

1 NOW, THEREFORE, THE COURT ORDERS:

2 1. The United States' request for an amended protective order restraining the 3 Subject Property pending the conclusion of this case (Dkt. No. 320) is GRANTED; and

4 2. The Subject Property shall remain in the custody of the United States,
5 and/or its authorized agents or representatives, pending the conclusion of criminal
6 forfeiture proceedings and/or further order of this Court.

7
8 IT IS SO ORDERED.

9
10 DATED this 24th day of August, 2022.
